2	Game Content
	• You'll be taking care of two lost children as their surrogate parents. • Unlike previous raising simulation games, the key is to communicate effectively with the two children. • After about a week, their parents will come to pick them up. • After that, the two children will come to visit. The ending will vary depending on how well you communicated with them. • Unlike other virtual pets, you can see your friendship level with the characters, creating a sense of connection with them. • The food icons include things that Pingu and Pinga dislike, so unlike traditional virtual pets where you simply feed them when they're hungry, you must take care of them without letting them develop picky eating habits. You're sure to become attached to the two children!
	Status 'Hunger', 'Happiness', 'Health', and 'Friendship' are displayed as parameters. Food Feed them 'Fish', 'Soup', 'Vegetables', and 'Cake' without letting them become picky eaters.
